Yeah, but the masses aren't organized enough. If they are offered even a little bit of money they will cave. The systems of this world are destined to fail.

Fortunately, God has a plan if we will just accept it. Here is a short video.

the Temple and the palace successfully,

Just received a text message from my child's school that said..

Really, when will this insanity end.. Like we don't know if our kids are sick? Like the kids don't know they are sick or want to miss school anyway?

Where does it say forced? It could be the parents volunteered. They are bringing them to stadium, how do they get there? Probably parents. I think you need to look into this some more before making these accusations

Right now, there are roughly 17,000 migrant children being held in federal custody. I'd like to know what the number is that will get Democrats to pretend to mope about it for social media likes and shares, because it was far fewer at any given time a year or two ago.

Was just told that a teacher in Northwest Arkansas asked for her students "pronouns"

This has to stop folks, it has to stop in public schools.. This is NOT okay.. This is the parents job to teach their children, NOT the public schools!

Stand up parents, you're losing your kids!

Grassroots restoration of America must begin with the family (through schools, churches and neighborhoods)

Biden compounds the disaster by lying:

"We will use every resource."

A TOTAL LIE!

W are pathetically negotiating with the barbaric terrorists, the Taliban, to get our people to the airport.

France and UK sent their own troops.

OUR SPECIAL FORCES SHOULD BE THERE NOW.

This article has been passed around a ton. The titles are misleading. They went straight from the lower courts to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court just said you have to go to the appeals court first. After it goes through that THEN then Supreme Court will remove mandates

Nope. I'm from FL, just over the border in GA now. No one, from co workers to family/friends, sees the need for lock downs. Some still wear masks, but there's no reason for lock downs. Economy is still okay there because they're free to make their own choice.

America is the greatest underdog story of all time. Progressives are hard at work rewriting it into a twisted version of reality. Cancel Culture is their tactic of choice to silence conservatives.

Trump is the Vessel, all of you chiming in and attacking haven't fought on the road the last 5 years like myself and other sacrificing everything for the cause actually have done that. He's my President, but we have so much more to fight for in America than one office

The President wouldn't stop New York, California, or now even Texas from masking our children.

We have a fight at all levels from the schools boards to the school house, from the State Capitals to the White House.

This battle isn't about one race and folks need to wake up!

This article has been passed around a ton. The titles are misleading. They went straight from the lower courts to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court just said you have to go to the appeals court first. After it goes through that THEN then Supreme Court will remove mandates

The President wouldn't stop New York, California, or now even Texas from masking our children.

We have a fight at all levels from the schools boards to the school house, from the State Capitals to the White House..

This battle isn't about one race and folks need to wake up!

Trump is the Vessel, all of you chiming in and attacking haven't fought on the road the last 5 years like myself and other sacrificing everything for the cause actually have done that. He's my President, but we have so much more to fight for in America than one office

The President wouldn't stop New York, California, or now even Texas from masking our children.

We have a fight at all levels from the schools boards to the school house, from the State Capitals to the White House..

This battle isn't about one race and folks need to wake up!

I am not against vaccination. But I would like to be able to pick which type of COVID vaccine I want or for my kids. So far Novavax is the safest but keeps getting delayed by the USA for approval.

We know what the lying media and Biden Administration are saying..

Is there anyone living in Florida who wants to be masked and locked down?

Nope I'm from FL, just over the border in GA now. No one, from co workers to family/friends, sees the need for lock downs. Some still wear masks but there's no reason for lock downs. Economy is still okay there because they're free to make their own choice.

I've never seen people more free ever. I don't go out much, but when I do, everybody is living their best life. So no, it's false.

Can someone explain to me why nothing makes sense anymore and the only option is to try to outthink the evil agenda? If I think like a mad genius and sprinkle a little movie plot in with it I can twist this crap into something understandable

Looking at what's on the ground right now, I think Portland in a lot of respects represents a worst-case scenario, in terms not of how bad it could possibly get, but how bad it is now

Biden inherited a sealed border, an economy primed to roar, a path to victory over the virus & a stable Afghanistan w/peace framework. He erased the border, painfully prolonged the pandemic, surged inflation & created history's worst hostage crisis in Taliban-ruled Afghanistan.

What a coincidence...

Patriots put pressure on World's largest employer yesterday at their home office, Walmart.. who's trying to mandate the vaccine, and low and behold the very next morning Pfizer is approved by the FDA..

What are the chances and odds of that... :-)

Americans laziness and not holding our leaders accountable, knowing anything about them, knowing their policies, etc.. This has caused the mess we are in.

That coupled with WEAK pastors who refuse to stand up and speak out and encourage their congregations to do so..

What a coincidence...

Patriots put pressure on World's largest employer yesterday at their home office, Walmart.. who's trying to mandate the vaccine, and low and behold the very next morning Pfizer is approved by the FDA..

What are the chances and odds of that... :-)

I often have my mask on in the car when I'm running errands. I either forget or just don't care to keep taking it off/putting it on because it's not an encumbrance. Why does that behavior in other people bother you so much? I'm far more concerned when I see drivers texting.

It's time to stop blaming the left, and start focusing on the 98% of our side who refuse to actually speak out, stand up, and speak truth because they are afraid they may hurt feelings, lose jobs, offend friends/family..

Until that happens, we're in an uphill battle folks..

What we are witnessing has been systematically planned. We will be funneled by force but it will be disguised as the only answer to the problems we are facing, rest assured the problems were created for the Gov intended solutions. Times are going to get tough, prepare now.

"prepare now" says the people who ignored the "doomsday prophets" who, for years, just wanted people to pay attention to what was already happening.

Maybe start following the people who have been saying this for years instead of the distractions who only now say it.

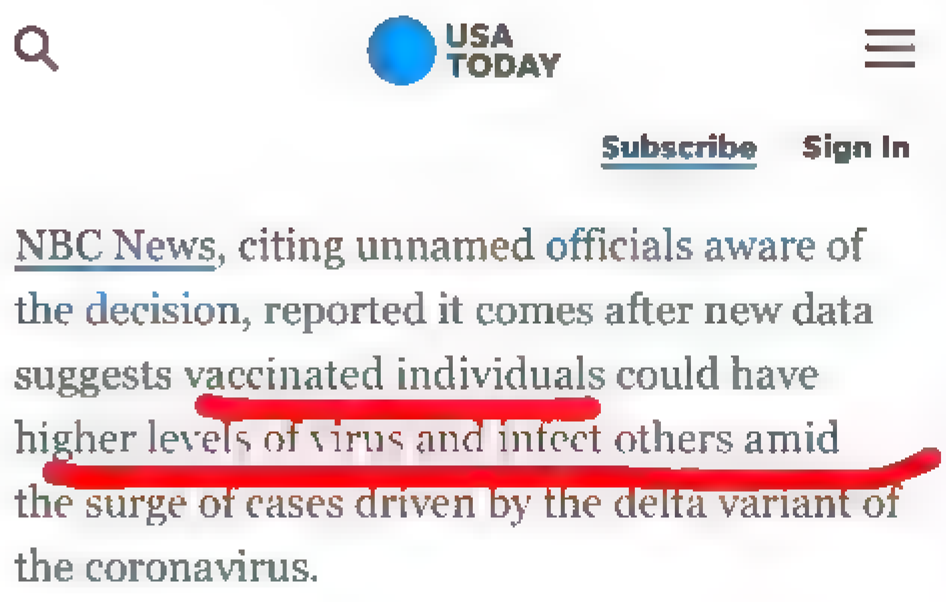
AN EXPERIMENTAL CONCOCTION THAT DOESN'T CURE, PREVENT AND STILL SPREADS A VIRUS SHOULD NOT BE FDA APPROVED NOR FORCED ON CIVILIANS!



NBC News, citing unnamed officials aware of the decision, reported it comes after new data suggests vaccinated individuals could have higher levels of virus and infect others amid the surge of cases driven by the delta variant of the coronavirus.

Let me say unequivocally @JoeBiden created the disaster unfolding in #Afghanistan right now and I fully support the end of this dumb nation building effort you and the establishment right supported for decades.

Elizabeth Warren @SenWarren
Many of the most critical voices you're hearing right now are the same people who got us into war & who think we should stay forever. Some are bought and paid for by the defense industry. So let me say unequivocally: President Biden made the right decision to withdraw our troops.

It does not say FOR 7 days but AFTER 7 days. Big difference occurring at least 7 days after the second dose (with no COVID-19 cases in the vaccine group compared to 16 COVID-19 cases in the placebo group).

The Pentagon is pretending they'll honor religious exemptions but I've talked to a large number of chaplains & troops in recent days who tell me ALL religious exemptions they've seen have been denied by the Lt. Gen. with no explanation even if they've been approved in past years.

Robby Starbuck @robbystarbuck 2h

An interesting note: The process has changed for getting any religious exemptions from vaccination. Last year they quietly changed the old approval system which was done on the commander level in close consultation with chaplains. Now the Lt. Gen. decides all of them. Why?

3 37 130

Robby Starbuck @robbystarbuck 2h

Other units reported that they were told their exemptions wouldn't even be sent until they officially put the mandate in place (which was today) so it's yet to be seen what they do for those units but all the other troops I've spoken to had theirs denied when theirs were sent.

1 19 69

Robby Starbuck @robbystarbuck 2h

Many reported feeling like they are being threatened with job loss, loss of promotions, loss of pensions and more. Is this how we want our troops to feel @DeptDef? Some can't even see their family because a radius of travel has been imposed on the unvaccinated. Unacceptable.

America there is a quick way to stop everything that's going on in this country right now, the only problem is most of you don't have the guts or the balls to do it.
It wouldn't be easy, and people would most likely die.
But if it meant taking our country back I'm game.

The sad thing is that if @POTUS took a chain and chased after the Taliban like he claimed to have done with Corn Pop it would be infinitely more proactive than his current walk away policy.

Imagine blaming someone else because you don't have the courage to stand up for right & wrong!

I'm going from the School House to the White House from the School Boards to the State Capitals.

Stop Blaming the Left because you aren't courageous enough to stand with the Remnants!
